Instructional Methods

This is an online course with a synchronous component. An online course site hosted by Kent State University-Ashtabula is used to provide announcements, instructions, discussions, supplemental printed and web-based materials, and assignments to the students. It also serves as a central point for interaction/communication between the instructor and the students. Written assignments and other projects will be used to reinforce concepts.

Live Class Meetings and Participation

There will be live class meetings once a week on Tuesday from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. Central Time via the Zoom web conferencing system. This is an opportunity for the instructor to go over weekly topic highlights and for students to interact with the instructor and classmates through questions and discussions. The live sessions are instructor-facilitated discussions; they are not lecture sessions.

Participation to the live class meetings is required. It is the student’s responsibility to notify the instructor in advance if he/she must miss a class. Students should view the weekly lectures before the live meeting and be prepared to participate in the discussion. Students who missed a class meeting should view the session recording as soon as possible.

The link to the Zoom virtual classroom will be posted at the top of each weekly module. Students will use the same virtual classroom for their live class meetings the entire semester. The sessions will take place on the dates listed in the above schedule.

Course Assignments: Course assignments include lectures, assigned reading and research, mini essays, scholarly research, case studies, participation in live discussion, and a final project.

Lectures: Any lecture slides and videos must be viewed before each online live discussion sessions.

Assigned Readings: Assigned readings will include articles and additional resources. They must be completed before the online live discussion sessions.

Discussion Board Questions: Students will be asked to post mini essays, resources and other assignments on the online course site “Discussion Board” by seven of the day of the live class meeting. The instructor will address these questions during the live class meeting.

Final Project: Each student will be asked to put together a Final Project showcasing use of course concepts and will present to the group. Details will be provided in the online course site. This project is due by the last week of class.

Written Assignments
All written assignments will be typed. Spelling and grammar are extremely important in professional writing and papers will be scored accordingly. Written assignments will need to be submitted to the instructor by listed deadlines.

Expectations and Instructor Feedback
Students should participate in the weekly virtual class meetings. It is also the students’ responsibility to check the online course site on a regular basis, be aware of the required activities and assignments, and adhere to the deadlines. This will ensure a successful learning experience.

The instructor will make the best effort to respond to student questions and complete assignment/exam grading on a timely manner.

Grading:

- 90 – 100% = A
- 80 – 89% = B
- 70 – 79% = C
