Also be sure to check out what other events are taking place this month.

VESTA Instructor Profile— Zoran Ljepovic

At first glance, the VESTA Program may appear to be centered on Viticulture and Enology education in the Midwest. However, upon closer inspection one finds that the program also has significant national involvement, not only because of its students, but because of its instructors as well.

Click www.vesta-usa.org for the full story on Zoran Ljepovic.
