Instructional Methods

This is an online course with a synchronous component. An online course site (Learning Management System) is provided by the host institution to provide announcements, prerecorded lectures, notes, supplemental printed and web-based materials, and assignments. It also serves as a central point for interaction/communication between the instructor and the students.

Live Class Meetings

The live class meetings will take place every Tuesday from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. Central Time via the Zoom web conferencing system. Participation to the live class meetings is required and a participation grade is assigned. This is an opportunity for the instructor to go over weekly topic highlights and for students to interact with the instructor and fellow students through questions and discussions. Students are expected to be prepared to ask questions and actively participate in the discussions.

The link to the Zoom virtual classroom will be posted at the top of each weekly module. Students will use the same virtual classroom for their live class meetings the entire semester. The sessions will take place on the dates listed in the above schedule.

It is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor in advance if he/she must miss a class. Students who missed a class meeting are required to view the recording of the live class as soon as possible.

Course Assignments: Course assignments include lectures, assigned reading and research, mini essays, scholarly research, case studies, participation in live discussion, and a final project.

Lectures: Any lecture slides and videos must be viewed before each online live discussion sessions.

Assigned Readings: Assigned readings will include articles and additional resources. They must be completed before the online live discussion sessions.

Discussion Board Questions: Students will be asked to post mini essays, resources and other assignments on the online course site "Discussion Board" by seven of the day of the live class meeting. The instructor will address these questions during the live class meeting.

Final Project: Each student will be asked to put together a Final Project showcasing use of course concepts and will present to the group. Details will be provided in the online course site. This project is due by the last week of class.

Written Assignments

All written assignments will be typed. Spelling and grammar are extremely important in professional writing and papers will be scored accordingly. Written assignments will need to be submitted to the instructor by listed deadlines.

Expectations and Instructor Feedback

Students should participate in the weekly virtual class meetings. It is also the students' responsibility to check the online course site on a regular basis, be aware of the required activities and assignments, and adhere to the deadlines. This will ensure a successful learning experience.

The instructor will make the best effort to respond to student questions and complete assignment/exam grading on a timely manner.

Grading

Student grades will be determined based on their total points earned in the class. The table below outlines the total points possible for this class and their percentage weight.

Percentage Weight of Student Performance
Activity	Percentage	Points Possible
Mini Essays	13%	100
Scholarly Reviews	32%	250
Case Studies	26%	200
Zoom Discussions	16%	120
Final Project	13%	100
Total	100 %	770

Grade calculation: total points earned ÷ total points possible; then using the following scale to determine final letter grades:

90 – 100% = A	80 – 89% = B	70 – 79% = C	60 – 69 = D	Below 60% = F
